

church can feel proud of their place of worship.

We have had since last report two additions, worthy sister and brother. We just held our communion, it was a feast for the soul. Arrangements are being made for our annual harvest meeting which will (if no preventing providence) be held on Saturday the 6th day of Aug., next. These meetings has grown in favor with every body. Last year we had in attendance well nigh three thousand people. We expect a larger attendance this year. We wish to say now that we extend an invitation to our Brethren and sisters everywhere, come your lodging will be free.

DAYTON

Another child of faith has been added to this congregation from the G. B. Church.

Children's Day exercises have been postponed until the 31st.

The work here is brightening up all along the line.

MIAMISBURG

Children's Day was fittingly observed here last Sunday night. The church was filled to overflowing and the program was select and ably rendered. Bro. William Beachler knows how to promote the interests of a Sunday-school, and he is fortunate in having such competent and willing help. We are glad we were present and that it was a Brethren school conducting the exercises.

departure. During her short life she was a dutiful daughter, a devoted wife and a loving mother. It hath pleased Him who considereth the sparrow in its fall to permit her spirit to return to him. She died in the hope of the resurrection to eternal life. They who mourn resignedly submit to a wise providence which worketh all things together for good to them who love God. The subject of the above notice was a member of the Mt. Pleasant congregation at Rossville, Ind. Funeral sermon by the undersigned.
